Long Bay is a coastal residential area located in the parish of St. Philip on the southeastern coast of Barbados. Nestled along a scenic stretch of the island's Atlantic shoreline, Long Bay is prized for its tranquil, laid-back lifestyle and attractive ocean views, lots in the Long Bay area typically offer spacious land parcels suitable for building a custom home or investment property within a peaceful residential development. Long Bay is part of a broader coastal neighborhood that includes scenic beaches, residential developments, and easy access to both natural attractions and essential services. Its location places it within a short driving distance of Crane Beach and Resort, a globally renowned beach destination recognized for its unique pink-tinged sand and upscale amenities. Approximately 10 minutes' drive west of Long Bay, Six Roads is the commercial and social heart of St. Philip and the primary hub for everyday services. Six Roads earned its name because six major roads converge at a central roundabout, linking routes to different parts of Barbados. It functions as the parish's main meeting point and service center — essential
